

Creepmime, Chinese Whispers

Utterance of a word to give form to give being all corrupted by aeons of interpretation misinterpretation of all

No longer a path back to that which once was now a suicidal game of chinese whispers of god

The word mutated: a phrase of fallacy the phrase a law that rules our lives: insanity

Assimilate myriad delusions seek the whispered word behind the roars of ingorance

Seek the path back to that which once was no more futile fumbings for a misunderstood god
