

Crematory, Time For Tears

time for tears - caught in fire time for dreams - feed from the flames betray your roots create virginal life for the future the gate of illumination is closed reckless a loss create the angels of your imagination like the ashes in the wind

like the ashes in the wind -

time for tears - just for salvation
time for tears - caught in fire

like the ashes in the wind -

the silence of the night piercing reality humanity never hope for you enemies mistrust you your ashes burned on holy soil much time invested into the past

time for tears - just for salvation time for tears - time for tears
