

Crematory, Why

abandoned, without a word trust, broken without hope accused, seen as a loser punished, the heart broken

i recall your smile - i recall your smile endearing, the way you caressed me - blazing, an endless sea of light demolish, every thing once built shattered, the escape from the unknown wounded, affected till eternity lost, what you once possessed

without reason - tell me why? without words - tell me why?
without desire - tell me why? without sorrow - tell me why?

raped, by your own time pensive, loneliness remains expecting the inner sense fading, your voice dies away

tell me why? tell me why?

endearing, the way you caressed me - blazing, an endless sea of light

without desire - tell me why? without sorrow - tell me why?
