

Crest, In This Cage

technology stands tall I won't tell you where I'll go locked away in this cage until I say I'm sorry locked away in this cage until I say I love you

locked away
here I'm safe until the break
break of day
unveils my fragile
in this cage I'm locked away
break of day
unveils my cold heart

machine of broken dreams construction of my fears

break of day
break of day
