

Cribs, Our Bovine Public

Didn't think I'd have to choose
Didn't think I'd wear brown shoes
Didn't think that I'd ever have to read about this in the news

You gonna have a go
Well I don't want to know
I just thought that I should try and say hello

To those who'd never exist without being generic
You have to impress our bovine public
They'd never exist if we wasn't generic
You have to impress our bovine public
I'll never forget how all this become
And I will never regret a thing
And you will never exist without us
So maybe I do

I do not have the time
Fairweather friends of mine
A years a long time to be doing nothing with your life
I heard you fell alert
I'm hoping that it hurt
See if too much time in ground to be ground into the dirt

By those who'd never exist without being generic
You have to impress our bovine public
You'd never exist if you wasn't generic

You have to impress our bovine public
I'll never forget how all this become
And I will never regret a thing I've done
And you will never exist without us
So maybe I do

Well you say nothing
So you'll always mean nothing to me
And if what you say means nothing
Then what you say will always mean nothing to me
Woo

Didn't think I'd have the time
Fairweather friends of mine
A years a long time to be doing nothing with your life
I heard you fell alert
Well I'm hoping that it hurt
See if too much time in ground to be ground into the dirt

By those who'd never exist without being generic
You have to impress our bovine public
You'd never exist if you wasn't generic
You have to impress our bovine public
I'll never forget how all this become
And I will never regret not one thing I've done
And you will never exist without us
So maybe I do
