

Criss Angel, Hate Me

Welcome to a world of hate~
Where does it come from, all this hatred?

I know who you are.
What's left to say? Get out of my face.
I can't compete with your expensive toys.
So what's the difference anyway, you do the same thing everyday.

Hate me for what I am, hate me for what I'm not.
Hate me with everything, everything you've got.

I know who I am. I know who I am.
I know who I am. What about you?
(x2)

Hate me, hate me, hate me for what I am.

Hate me for what I am, hate me for what I'm not.
Hate me with everything, everything you've got.

Hate me, hate me, hate me with everything, everything you've got.

Father, forgive me, for I have sinned.
Of what sin are you guilty?
I have been guilty of hating mankind.

Hate me for what I am, hate me for what I'm not.
Hate me with everything, everything you've got.

Hate me, hate me, hate me with everything, everything you've got.

Where does it come from, all this hatred?

Drive them, drive them all into submission.
Do not show the slightest pity or mercy.
Never stop. Now go, go.

Hate me for what I am, hate me for what I'm not.
Hate me with everything, everything you've got.

Where does it come from, all this hatred?
