

Criss Angel, Revelation

Into Amystika I was born
Now as I reflect upon my journey
I've come to realize That I'm complete
I finally found myself

Here I can see
How my life has passed me by
And if I could have just one more chance
I'd go back and change it all
Am I alone?
In a world I can't control
My trials here have left me
At peace with my own soul
So I'll just put on my mask
And put on your face
Let's break off the past
And get out of this place
'Cause I am for you
And you are for me
Now that I know that I have what I need Revelation

Revelation
Revelation
I would die for you
(just to be with you)
And I would die (would die) for you
(for you, to be with you)
I would
die for you
(just to be with you)
I would die, I would die for you
(for you, for you, I would die for you)
you

My love
I'm always here
Just dream of me
Criss, Criss
I can finally see you

I would die for you
(just to be with you)
And I would die for you
(for you, for you, to be with you)
I would
die for you
(just to be with you)
I would die, I would die for you
(for you, for you, if I could)
you
