

Criteria, Connections

I remember when we first met
Through a friend of a friend of a friend
We were fortunate to have met

And a month or so later I guessed
Affection it settled in
This is where it begins
Not where it ends

But I know that I&#039;ve made some mistakes
We can review my mistakes
And come to know a better way
But in the end I&#039;m the same
Just look at the dna

Is it possible to be so confused at this point?
And it&#039;s rational, [meant] it&#039;s logical
There is no point in denying it to yourself

Control
I&#039;m in control
Decisions aren&#039;t made for me
They&#039;re made on my own

But i know that i&#039;ve made some mistakes
We can review my mistakes
And come to know a better way
But in the end i&#039;m the same
Just look at the dna

Is it possible to be so confused at this point?
And it&#039;s rational, [meant] it&#039;s logical
There is no point in denying give yourself a chance
You might like it

We must make
Connections
We must make
Connections
We must make
Connections
We must make
