

Criteria, Kiss The Wake

my condition waits to deteriorate just awaken the wave of time like a car in the sun its heat cant escape until it is driven away were not here understand it here on the blade of grass your futures limitless trial murder comes in ocean&#039;s vast but the truth is you never try (suddenly suddenly)

but it don&#039;t mean you take your own life seriously

but if there&#039;s something you hate i wanna take it away
oh it is shame
you do what they say
your selfless and vague
when your cold heart heats you up and it lifts you holds you

i wanna take it away

so if theres something you hate im gunna take it away

(suddenly suddenly)
but it don&#039;t mean you take your own life seriously
