

Crobot, Better Times

Dust off your shoes get ready to go
There ain't another thing you need to know
They're getting ready to start the show
The clock keeps tickin' but it must be slow

I've been outta my mind
Waiting for better times
We're all just standing in line
Waiting for better times
Better times, yeah

And I don't care whatever the cost
I gotta make up for what I lost
And I've been sittin' on my hands too long
And when they're shakin' nuthin's wrong

I've been outta my mind
Waiting for better times
We're all just standing in line
Waiting for better times, yeah

Can you tell me
Where I lost it?
Maybe that's where I'll find it

Can you tell me
Where I lost it?
Maybe that's where I'll find it

I've been outta my mind
Waiting for better times
We're all just standing in line
Waiting for better times, yeah
Better times
Better times
