

Crook Baby, Other side

There you are on the other side of the room
Place was filled but all I could see it was you
Your my daddy captivating and you know it's true
Sent a smile and you started to make your way through
The crowd it grew so loud
You and I didn't even care
I never wanna get used to the sound you whispered in my ear

I loved you
Since I met you
Did I ever tell you that
I tried to push you
And you pull in
I felt heart so fast
