

Crooked X, Gone

I see your eyes and see a change
Runnin' through you
You can't deny you let the pain
Just consume you

I'm takin' no blame
I'm feelin' the same
I'm so ok...

If my friends have gone
Away from me
I got no shame
If I look and no one's
There for me
I got no shame

You walk away and don't look back
And I'm left stranded
It's clear to see your heart is black
So empty handed

I'm takin' no blame
I'm feelin' the same
I'm so alright...

If my friends have gone
Away from me
I got no shame
If I look and no one's
There for me
I got no shame

I'm takin' no blame
I'm feelin' the same
I'm so alright...

If my friends have gone
Away from me
I got no shame
If I look and no one's
There for me
I got no shame
