

Crooked X, Nightmare

Uh!

Sometimes When I wake at night
My pillow's covered with sweat
Am I awake? am I asleep?
I haven't figured that out yet.

Afraid to breath, afraid to move
Can't get no rest, pull the covers up over my face
And my heart's pounding out of my chest
I'm in a nightmare!

Start to shake as I plead
Wish the sun would rescue me
Want my mind to let me be
I'm in a nightmare!

Hear the sound of the night
My imagination's fed
I lie awake and wonder
What's beneath my bed?

I would scream out for help
But I'm too consumed with fear
Maybe if I lay real still, it won't know I'm here
I'm in a nightmare!

Start to shake as I plead
Wish the sun would rescue me
Want my mind to let me be
I'm in a nightmare!

I'm in a nightmare (nightmare!)
I'm in a nightmare (nightmare!)
I'm in a nightmare (nightmare!)
I'm in a nightmare (nightmare!)

Yeeeeah!
