Crosby, Stills & Nash, Carried Away

You came from out of the skies Your skin and your eyes The colours of bronze The moon in your ear Twinkled and shone Soon you'll be gone

Sailing out on the blue Your old man and you Drifting along Leaving me here Thinking it through Soon you'll be gone

Moving through my changes as fast as I can Trying to bring a balance to me and the man Part of me is screaming to say I want to be carried away

[Instrumental (Harmonica)]

Moving through my changes as fast as I can Trying to bring a balance to me and the man Part of me is screaming to say I want to be carried away

From out of the skies Your skin and your eyes The colours of bronze The moon in your ear Twinkled and shone Soon you'll be gone
