

Cross Canadian Ragweed, This Time Around

I used to be crazy, yeah, they called me a fool
Guess I wasn't myself back when I wanted you
Now you're comin' round again, that same old look in your eye
Yea I'd have to be crazy to fall again

I'm gonna break these chains around my broken heart
You could have had it once, but you tore it all apart
I'm gonna throw your lyin' eyes over my left shoulder
I'm not gonna let you wear your crown
This time around

I can't stay any longer
I gotta be on my way
I've heard a thousand times
Everything that you gotta say

Show myself to the door
I'll turn out your light
Get back in my car
You'll be alone again tonight

I'm gonna break these chains around my broken heart
You could have had it once, but you tore it all apart
I'm gonna throw your lyin' eyes over my left shoulder
I'm not gonna let you wear your crown
This time around

Never thought I'd be so cold
What did you expect me to do
I can't put it all on hold
I learned it all from you

I'm gonna break these chains around my broken heart
You could have had it once, but you tore it all apart
I'm gonna throw your lyin' eyes over my left shoulder
I'm not gonna let you wear your crown
This time around

Not this time around
