

Cross Canadian Ragweed, Untitled Hidden Track

There's people in your life,
Who want you to be what they only dreamed to be.
There's people in your life,
Who put you down because you have a simple dream.
They say you'll never be,
Nothing but a ship without a sea.

There's people in your eyes,
Who walk through hell for you,
'Cause you would do the same.
Come face to face with Satan,
And embrace with the flames.

And those who have stood by me,
Ever do I owe!
For believing what I believe,
From the deepest of my soul!
To the highest of the mountains,
To the deepest of the sea!
How much that I thank you,
Always being there for me.

And to those who said 'Never',
Won't and don't try,
Watch me as I spread my wings,
And aim up for the sky!
There is nothing you can't do,
If you really want to live!
For I believe if you do not dream,
You never truly live...

And to all of those who have this dream,
Just the same as I,
Don't let someone shoot you down,
Let your future die.
For when our ship is bound for shore,
We'll be there by the sea...
Waiting for our treasure chest of fantasies and dreams.
Yeah when our ship is bound for shore,
We'll be there by the sea...
Waiting for our treasure chest of fantasies and dreams.
