

Crossbreed, Push

Standing, fading, seductively insane
Careless, truthful, are not even near the same
Feeling, fearless, I hope there's time to change
Distance still remains...

It's just a phase
It's just a phase
It's just a phase
That I go through

The sounds are fading
The sounds are fading
The sounds are fading

I'm dead, but I'm still alive
Starving and starting my new life
Begging and working to have more
There's no remorse...

God, God it's just a phase
God, God it's just a phase
God, God it's just a phase
That I go through

The pain will stop soon
The needle's in now
I can't wait for it to be over

Stranded and feeling piercing eyes
Staring out across the sky
Watching and waiting to explore
There's no remorse...

God, God it's just a phase
God, God it's just a phase
God, God it's just a phase
That I go through

The pain will stop soon
The needle's in now
Oh, I can't wait for this to be over

It's just a phase
It's just a phase
It's just a phase
That I go through

God, God it's just a phase
God, God it's just a phase
God, God it's just a phase
That I go through (x2)
