

Crowbar, Above, Below And Inbetween

Destroyed
In leaving I took the truth
Ie learned
Never could I trust in you
Wasted
Those years are lost in my head
No more
In ashes now you lay

Before I end my time
I shall rise
Before I end my time
Rise above it all again

See you
Youe crawling down on your knees
No tears
Youl never see tears from me
Long road
Still losing the apathy
Ie learned
Learned how to walk away
