

Crowbar, Remember Tomorrow

Unchain the colors, before my eyes,
Yesterday's sorrows, tomorrow's white lies.
Scan the horizon, the clouds take me higher,
I shall return, from out of fire

Tears for remembrance, and tears for joy,
Tears for somebody, and this lonely boy
Out in the madness, the all seeing eye,
Flickers above us, to light up the sky

Unchain the colors, before my eyes,
Yesterday's sorrows, tomorrow's white lies.
Scan the horizon, the clouds take me higher,
I shall return, from out of fire
