Crowbar, The Only Factor

I want my share of all that I've given to you Take it, take it
Walk all over me
I'm putting that to an end
Right now Think how you want but I know I'm living the truth Break it, break it Get myself clean and lose all this negative shit
I said

Never again, never again Too hard

Giving myself the power to make it all end
Take it, take it
Be my own man
stand up and never look back Never
Through my suffering indulging in all that I could
No lie
Keep myself clean
a fight that I know I can't quit
I said

I know that time will be
The only factor
