

Crowhead, My Angel (Signal Krem Remix)

Deep inside the pit, she hides from the clowns
In the dark, she prays, she prays for love
But it's all too late

She sings a song of love
She sings the song of death

In her mind of sorrow, she makes her choice to die
The knife is sharp
Her veins so cold
The blade is always sharp

She sings a song of love
She sings the song of death

The clowns are gone, you sleep now
Away from it all (away from it all)
But you forgot to say goodbye
I can't let you go

She sings a song of love
She sings the song of death

I seek you in heaven
I seek you in hell
Cause you forgot
Cause you forgot to say goodbye...
