

Crowned King, Tired Eyes

Are you still standing, oh god give me a sign
If I forget about it
I'll feel better give me time
I wish I could swallow, just an oceans worth of pride
And not be scared to watch and mend as worlds collide

Don't forget these tired eyes
And don't forget this paradise
Let's regret the reasons why
We put fire in the Sky

Have we forgotten, all the news we've heard today
I heard you sing about it, if words could only sway
I can't believe where once we lay under the knife
We turn our backs again go back to normal life

Am I still standin, Oh god give me a sign
I can't remember how I cried and cried and cried
