

Crucified, A Guy In A Suit And The Pope

Mr. preacher on the t.v. screen tells me that he knows just what I need he's "been there before...and back again" but with that fancy suit I find it hard to believe he says the Lord will be so faithful, that he'll protect but only if I'm faithful with my monthly check I've never sent him my money probably never will (oooo!) I guess that means I live my life on the edge?!?!??

preacher (pope john 2nd chorus) your time will come you lead the church astray for a steady income you can bet
God won't forget but if you'd like I'd (gladly!) tie a millstone around your neck (matt. 18:6) his nothingness on a simple throne (Christ mediates for God, and Christ alone!) just another man in a ridiculous hat held accountable for the seeds he's sown cancel the tours and the material things the people bowing to you and kissing your rings guide them only to their knees seeking forgiveness today cast no doubt as to what they need
