

Crucified, God In A Cage

you've heard the whole story you don't want to be a part you've taken Jesus Christ and locked him out of your heart if you're not for him you're against him the bringer of new life there is one thing you must do accept the way, the truth, the life is God in a cage? from hell you won't be saved (x2) concerned with pleasing crowds you put God to the test don't wait 'till you're before his throne the wages of sin are death I'm no longer of this world that I know for sure greater is he who's in me than he who's in the world

(chorus)

Jesus set me free now it's time for you if you think this is a fairytale I tell you it's the truth

(chorus)
