

Crucified, You Don't Understand

(to christians who are judgemental) don't want us in your pulpit seats you don't like the way we look or sing but we'll just love you more and more because that is what we're fighting for

(chorus)
you don't understand where we're coming from we're just following God's only Son

(to non-christians)
laugh at us for our beliefs open your eyes so you can see without the spirit you can't understand we're not a part of fleshly man

(chorus)

(to luke-warm people)
if you're halfway get out of the way we don't need you here or in our way you know what's wrong then fight for good
you know the truth
you know what's true
