

Cruciform Injection, Dark House

"This house has changed, its rearranged these feelings have enraged, deranged darkness takes ahold of all that old diminishing hope, severed thoughts Dancing rain, the blood that drips from my veins
In this dark house

broken nails and empty eyes i really try to visualize
in this dark house

Lives are torn and sickness bleeds this cruel intolerance continues to feed on my life, my blood, my soul, myself this dark house takes everything
