

Cruiserweight, I'm Back

i could make a list of all the cynical ideas i have now they're all attributed to you like "love is just another form of cancer"; but contrary to what you might think the list flushes down the drain so easily whoa, watch me now i could do my dance anyhow but i wanted you to see it and anyone can see what the outcome of this story won't be 'cause, baby, i'm back up in the distance there's a fuzzy figure that might remind you turn away, it's too late because the one laughing the hardest won't escape your brain like a dynamite boy song, ringing true, it will grab on tighter every single day so keep on sitting on your hands but i'm right outside your window now 'cause, baby, i'm back and you can raise the roof on that round and round we go but you'll see now who's laughing, now who's laughing

now who's laughing, now who's laughing now... please keep all hands and feet inside the car 'cause here we go round and round we go, round and round we go and your vacant stares only drive me further from my weak place

'cause, baby, i'm back and you can raise the roof on that
