

Crush, Bad Enough

You tell me that you're leavin'..
And do you ever get used to runnin' away?
Everything that you are..
And everywhere that you came from..
Does the pressure just build inside you?

Do you feel you need change?
All that you've become..
All that you would become..

I know it hurts sometimes..
Do you want it bad..
Do you want it bad enough?
I know someday you'll shine..
If you want it bad..
If you want it bad..
Do you want it bad enough?

Now people around have been askin'..
They're wonderin' where you've been..
Hopefully you're still breathin'..
Hopin' that you're believin'..
In all of the good inside you..

'Cuz you never need to change..
All that you've become..
All you would become..

I know it hurts sometimes..
Do you want it bad..
Do you want it bad enough?
I know someday you'll shine..
If you want it bad..
If you want it bad..
Do you want it bad enough?

So you tell me that you're leavin'..
And do you ever get used to runnin'?

I know it hurts sometimes..
Do you want it bad..
Do you want bad enough?
I know someday you'll shine..
If you want it bad..
Do you want it bad enough?

I know it hurts sometimes..
Do you want it bad..
Do you want it bad enough?
I know someday you'll shine..
If you want it bad..
If you want it bad..
You want it bad..
Do you want it bad enough?
