

Crushead, Picture In My Mind

I still remember the day i met you
I couldn` t believe my eyes
So many people in that crowded room
And you shining out like a spotlight

So please put me on the radio
You are the only one I tell it to the world
I love you
I wanna show you something new
This picture in my mind radiates my soul

This was our first chapter in history
I hope this book has no end
I am so grateful that we can be
One part of God's special plan

So please put me on the radio...

Rising or fallin it lies in his hands
He`s walking the path beside us
And until the day we do our final dance
I know he will help us to trust

So please put me on the radio...
