

Crushead, Ready For Take Off

So we are back for the third time
So we hit the stage
Thank you guys for coming here
So let`s get on and rage
If you stay here
We will tell you
Something about Christ
So keep listening
To this song now
Do the crushead style

Get up
Are you ready for take off
So wave your hands and don't stop
And you will see
Christ is all you need

We won`t hide what we got to say
We won`t ever stop
Communicating truth
Revealed to us by the lord
But don`t you think
We`re the heroes here
Or something of that kind
Everybody in the house
Give a shout to jesus christ

Get up...

Raise your hands
And you will see
Christ is all you need

Get up...
