

Crystal Bernard, Have We Forgotten What Love Is

No wonder my heart is aching,
On the verge of breaking down,
The way we mistreat each other,
What we're becoming now,
Have we forgotten what love is?

Remember when love was patient,
Everything good and kind,
The feelings we felt together,
As our souls entwined,
Have we forgotten what love is?

Chorus:
Cause love is holds no record of wrongs,
And love is both gentle and strong,
It can't be spoken or promised,
It has to be shown
Have we forgotten what love is?

I heard a voice of a distance angel,
Reminding me and you,
That love is not an expectation,
Or something we failed to do,
Have we forgotten what love is?

(Chorus)

Love has got a way of healing,
Using the hands of time,
Can even restore the feelings buried deep inside,
Have we forgotten what love is?

(Chorus)
