

Crystal Bernard, We Don't Live There Anymore

(Crystal Bernard/David Rhyne)

I came across a
Dusty photograph
I hope the 80's don't come back
My hair was so high
Yours was parted on the side
I laughed until I cried

Reminiscing - us in the movies kissing
In our favorite Jordache jeans
Oh I remember crying through
The Way We Were Never knowing I'd be her

So I went back to how I used to feel
When big mistakes we made
Seemed like no big deal
Where everyday was better than the day before
But we don't live there anymore

I opened up our
Box of 45's
Oh what memories they revive
Penny Love - never made me cry
But it's sure killing me tonight
