

Crystal Castles, Baptism

Too much light in my eyes
And if I pay my price
No reason, I know I shouldn't
But you're between my thighs
I can see it, I love us, believe it
We're touching, we're seeing

Hold my head underwater
Do my best for my father
Hold your breath, we won't stop breathing
If only God was made conceiving

This is your baptism
And you can't forgive them
This is your baptism
And you can't forgive them

Touching in the bath
A rhythm saved for last
Stop dreaming, it's in your blood
I'm choking, I don't know much
Trust me, I can see it, I love us, believe it
We're touching, we're seeing

Hold my head underwater
Do my best for my father
Hold your breath, we won't stop breathing
If only God was made conceiving

This is your baptism
And you can't forgive them
This is your baptism
And you can't forgive them
