

Crystal Castles, Celestica

As we fall into sequence and we're eating our young remain silent and still for modesty When the splints have been broken and they can't help you now do you pray with your eyes closed naturally Follow me into nowhere
Woven with the utmost care

If I'm lost please don't find me if I jump let me sink we descended from no one with a wink

When it's cold outside hold me
don't hold me
When I choose to rest my eyes coax me
don't coax me
When it's cold outside hold me
don't hold me
When I choose to rest my eyes coax me
don't coax me
Follow me into nowhere
Woven with the utmost care

Have they cleansed you with chloride and scrubbed behind the knees Has your body been hollowed by the breeze
