==Unrequited Love==

&lt;/lyrics&gt;

I understand that it's just my one-sided love
You really turn me on so much that I'm sad &amp; want to meet you even in a dream

(51-GOICHI-)

It's da Crystal GO I CHI my L.O.V.E got you hypnotized baby I'll keep it a secret from my girl &amp; we can get together in you, who jumps into the deep sea

(Arkitec)

&quot;I won't cry anymore&quot; (you said) with your tears, the street light gets longer your eyes that became like a lost child &amp; inside, yes, the feelings should have sunk in, now they flow with the tears &quot;Is it a distant love?&quot; I begin to question

(COYASS)

It's my turn, well, my time is starting I'm a high risk &amp; high return
If my soul &amp; body gets bounced only at a critical moment, I'll keep my HARDER emotions undercover again

Your rumpled hair, your smiling face, my boy I always chased after you with my eyes, you have a girl & I do understand that To everyone, we match each other well
When I realized it, now it's too late

Until now, loving someone is surely painful
This, that's not fair; I miss you so much more than before that you don't leave my mind

I already know that this is my one-sided love Will I give up? Will I not?
The answer doesn't come--what am I to do?

I don't sleep; the address I scrolled on is shining
The last button...in the end, I will, I won't...can't call I'll throw away my feelings, I must forget my love, my heart Right now, there's nothing for me to do

But whenever I see you, it's no good, what's going on? My decision crumbles Even if I cry, How should I--it's a love that doesn't reach (you) It beats me; how can I erase it?

I know that I'm alright, it's just my one-sided love
You really turn me on so much that I'm sad & want to meet you, even a dream would be fine

(COYASS)
I know each time I ride on the loud volume microphone it stimulates your eardrum, the image trap Hit me Hit me MB, it's a technique that I show you Tell me that your feeling increase day by day

(51-GOICHI-)
Do I turn you on?
my mind that gets clear from my cloudy emotions vibrates (oh!!)

(Arkitec)
She loves you, there's no hint my love to you, my heart asks (will you) love me or leave me?

(51-GOICHI-)
Girl whatchu want from me?
With a side-glance, I feel your gaze, that love is dangerous

(Arkitec)
Forgetting about you naturally is impossible it repeats again, I pretend to be your good friend

(COYASS / 51-GOICHI- / Arkitec)
It's like a mystery musical selection, there's no answer make you high baby, yeah, give me da answer
C.R.Y.S.T.A.L K.A.Y

I gave it my all, the gentle stars fall on my cheek Tomorrow, I'm sure I'll always become strong There's a rainbow that comes only after the rain
I will be able to love someone again
