==Broken Times==

</lyrics>
The springs sky dances. Gently, a song resounds.
The next door opens. Can it teach time?

Gently, the eyes are shut. Try to count the seasons
Colors are being recalled repeatedly.

This hand is slipping through the memories were embracing

Tied to you and your hand
I wonder, when are you losing something?
Even if the dancing falling flower petals hide goodbye
Cause the future is smiling.

Im getting close to you. We cant see the changing sceneries
The tears, the smiles, and the dreams too as it is.

I want to be unforgettable even if the times are draining.

Prior to the extended map
We still described the invisible picture
Dont say goodbye
One day, prior to every road,
Well encounter cause I believe so

In the evening, the night with unstoppable rain
Ran with my tears
Everyday, with all of my darlings,
The thing is we clumsily hurt each other
I want the means to change

Dont say goodbye
cause the future is smiling before us.
