I must tell you... I must tell you my feelings of love
I must tell you... I must tell you my feelings of love

I'm at a loss for words so much that I can't look at you That's how much I love you Why is it that even though I love you so much that I can't find the right words?

When the bud got filled with love it will [bloom into] a flower

* Now, before the pure bud that breathes in my heart blooms, will it die?
I don't want to make these into memories without you noticing me, so I must tell you my feelings--"I love you" so much that I cry

I must tell you... I must tell you

My love gets so serious that it gets quite dangerous
I'm so into you
Even when I'm hanging out with my friends, when I'm aware [of you], I'm searching for you

The bud won't get wet by the sad rain anymore

When will the bud in my heart bloom?
Now I just quietly wish upon a star
I don't want to make this into memories, so I must tell you my feelings:
"I love you" so much that I cry

Although you're always so nearby,
I can't laugh about the frustrating distance
Why don't you realize it?

The truth is, you probably do notice my feelings...

* repeat

The bud of my heart swelled very little
My loving heart become stronger than yesterday
I don't want to make this into memories, so I must tell you my feelings:
"I love you" so much that I cry

I've gotta let you know
I wanna let you know
I've gotta let you know
I can't let you go...

I must tell you... I must tell you... my feelings
