

Crystal Kay, Lead Me To The End

lead me to the end

tell me...will it end?

I need you here with me
but love is still here
what can we do

tell me

help me in the end will it end?

</lyrics>
I can't hear your words clearly Somewhere in my heart, I looked down

The shining sand spilled into our dry espadrilles but we just walked

Tell me, the light ahead even of a 100 years
Although the stars continue to live, why are we the ones who are lost?
lead me to the end

My ear, removed of earrings, is light & I rested on your shoulder

Because daybreak wraps us up like old clothes, love is stays out of sight

Please... even tomorrow is a continuation of yesterday
Let's search for what we lost in the labyrinth of time
tell me...will it end?

I need you here with me
but love is still here
what can we do

Although the stars continue to live,
why are we the ones who are lost? tell me

Please... even tomorrow is a continuation of yesterday
Let's search for what we lost
in the labyrinth of time
help me in the end
will it end?
