&lt;/lyrics&gt;

*1 baby I say goodbye [to] the love I have till yesterday
My feelings changed wow wow wow and I'll go outside, everything will be all right My wonderful new world will begin

Everyone is shouting, driving on the seaside, the window's open, listening to the hot radio Isn't this time paradise?
The playful voices are my sweet sweet friends

Even if I don't say that I want to forget about the love I lost, [my friends] understand.
Your smile salways reaches my soul
My heart gets hot and I have tears of joy

*2 The precious things will never change even if we are apart wow wow wow Today, all day long everything will be alright
My wonderful new world will begin

It's really a party tune we cause an uproar [with]; we can be reborn on the beach Never mind, I don't wait for his call I gently touch your hand, my sweet sweet days

Even when night comes, even when morning comes I want to be here like this forever uh thanks, it really reaches my soul
My heart gets hot and I have tears of joy

I resolutely play around and I don't want to go home continue some more wow wow wow move along right now everything will be all right My wonderful new world will begin

maybe one day my dream will be granted baby even though you're far away and we can't meet everyone is in my heart, as it is
