

Crystal Lewis, Breakdown

copyright Jon Gibson

I GOTTA MESSAGE FOR YOU

Think you'll understand

Yeah, don't wanna force it down you

Just wanna share the plan

Now baby c'mon

I'm not so crazy now

Neither are you

Not with all I've been through

If you see the light ahead of you

And you don't like what you're going through

If you don't wanna wear the Devil's crown

Breakdown!

You've got something to tell me

You'd better spit it out, Yeah

But if you try to sell me

I think you better stand back

Baby, C'mon, I wasn't born yesterday

Oh no no, and neither were you

Not with all you've been through

If you see the light ahead of you

And you don't like what you're going through

If you don't wanna to wear the Devil's crownBreakdown!
