

Crystal Lewis, Kiss & Tell

Kiss

A kiss is a clue to the heart
A window that let's light impart
Or hides you away in the dark
The dark can consume and it will your will an enemy still and it will be forever until

You kiss and tell me what you're thinking
Kiss and tell me what you believe
Are you brave enough
have faith enough

Truth

The truth is the one thing we trust Worthy of all that we must give up to gain no matter what

What if the road's not paved with ease
What if storms are all you see
Will you kiss and leave
Or stay and still believe

Kiss and tell me what you're thinking
Kiss and tell me what you believe
Are you brave enough
Have faith enough
To stay oh, yeah yeah yeah

Kiss and tell me what you're thinking
Kiss and tell me what you believe
Are you brave enough
Have faith enough
To stay
