Crystal Lewis, Little Jackie

Jackie had a dad who didn't have Jesus He had no hope no reason to live One day she told him of The peace He brings us The freedom God so freely gives For fifteen years Eight of those were Jackie's He wouldn't hear and he wouldn't see Then before he died he asked Jackie Who's this man who'll set me free?

ooh little Jackie ooh little Jackie

He's the man who gave his life for me
Not just a man in fact a King
The blind see His mercy
The deaf hear His voice
I know Him she said, and He wants to know you

Jackie saw her dad go home to see Jesus Now she watches a dying world So much in need of hope and of rest So much in need of the peace she knows

ohh little Jackie ohh little Jackie

The world despises, the foolish reign they mock the Word of God we live Even though they have to hate Him He loves them so that's who Jesus is
