

Crystal Lewis, Return To Me

I remember when You first loved me and with me was all you wanted to be Now fallen in to the lie within Seems you're too far gone to come back to me Don't be discouraged dear one for my forgiveness awaits you here

(Chorus)
Return to me
Return to me
I'm longing for the day when you will Return to me
Return to me
I love you still

You defy me
yet you hide from me
Our sacred vow was broken with another choice as you're running I'm still loving seems that you don't recognize my voice
I will continue crying, calling until you hear me say

(Chorus)

Return to, come back to My voice that was so familiar to you Don't let it fade away

(Chorus)
