

Cuesh, Borrowed Time

Every fight needs mending
Every start has an end
Like th sunrise and the sunset
Thats just how it is
Love on borrowed time
Will never be yours nor mine
I need you like you need me
The way we ought to be
Oh, its good to be true,
If our hopes and dreams come true
Wish that i had more
Of this borrowed time
If only it would last a lifetime
This bitterness inside
Is an empty space i hide
It never satisfies
Living my life in a lie
Love on borrowed time
Will never be yours nor mine
Ill just close my eyes
And it will be alright
Oh, its good to be true
If our hopes and dreams come true
Wish that i had more
Of this borrowed time
If only it would last a lifetime
