

Culture Beat, You Belong

Was like fallin from heaven
on un-known ground.
Like the key for the backdoor
that never was found.
Like a spring in the desert,
like snow in July.
Wakin up in the morning
with a lullabye...

Refrain:
Thats why Im never gonna be
Jacks Baby,
thats why Im never gonna see
Jacks Baby.
Well grow older every day,
hearts get colder, anyway...

Why youve made it all past
before it began?
Let the king of the world be a begger again.
A fragment relingers
through time and space.
Let it run through your fingers
with a smile on your face...

Refrain:
Thats why Im never gonna be
Jacks Baby,
thats why Im never gonna see
Jacks Baby.
Well grow older every day,
hearts get colder, anyway...
...wanna be Jacks Baby...
