

Cultus Sanguine, The Graves Forgot My Names

Lost in this limbo
I'm here in wait
suspended in ages
waiting my time
hopes, failures, delusions and pain
passes by my side
as crystalized blazes

As a stone
my long condition
this wait I'm loosing in just covering me
my emotions, my memories

Lost in the ages
My soul
infests my last places
My cry
Lost and forgotten by graves
my name was
but I have no past

My screams
Lost in the ages
My soul
infests my last places
My cry
Why ? Why ?

Follow me
dance with me
leave for me
you're in me
forget your past
as the graves forgot
your name
the time will are to cover all
the graves
