

Curve, Horror Head

(THE Horror Head EP.)

Fireworks, blue and green

I can see what they sing

But you are away

You always smile

Boxing ring

The back of mules

You can really see, from the inside

Across the room

There's a horror in my head

When the blanket is gone

From the floor in my castle

Where I see the sun from

There's a horror in my head

When the blanket is gone

From the floor in my castle

Where I see the sun from

(-talk-)

In the comfort of this room

The challenge died

Remember you and me

We laughed 'til we cried
