

Curve, Sigh

(Left vocal)

... came in through the back yard
(sweet) "come into my parlor"
I am the scarlet in your dreary life
I've come to save you and show you who I am

(Right vocal)

Just ... to see

...

watch again
and I know it's the end
(I know it's a disaster)

...

... about what I am

Sigh

You just never look back

You just keep on moving, (screaming) ...

You just never look back

You just keep on moving, keep on moving
