

Custom, Mess

you dont really want to get involved in my life its scary like a slurpee brain freeze you dont really want to taste more than the first kiss because if you do there are some things you should know about me

im a messed up kid
with a messed up head
driving this wreck of a life through all the yellows and reds cause my messed up parents messed up and had me
if you want something totaled just give me the keys

so you think thats kind of charming everyone you know is a little confused but i bet theyre not all super-jinxed
black cloud bad luck shit magnet psycho mood swing lunatics like me

and all my friends are all a mess they're all a mess just like me if you put us all together it gets really ugly

im a mess

im a messed up kid with a mess of a life i look for boots with my teeth and my back with a knife i cant explain all the fuck ups and failures i cant remember any names its not something quantifiable and its not some kind of game what does it mean when everything fucks up what does it mean when everything sucks what does it mean when you dont want to leave the house youd rather stay in bed drunk
im a mess
