

Cut Off Your Hands, Happy As Can Be

last night i told a thousand lies to you, into your eyes i swore that i loved you, its getting harder girl but you must see, that im the one for you and you for me it so good these days we're happy as can be so glad i've found you and you're mine, we'll be fine im sure, if we can just ignore it glad i found you and you're mine,

and you're mine

i've never really told the truth so please, don't get upset or try to change for me, i'm sorry if this hurts but hey it's true, girl if it helps i'll say that i love you

so glad i've found you and you're mine, we'l be fine im sure, if we can just ignore it glad i found you and you're mine,
